The abstract should be prepared according to this form. Since the abstract will be reproduced directly, editing will not be possible. Authors have a full responsibility for correct design and contents. The text of the abstract should be written in English with 1.5 line spacing (or equivalent) on one page. The abstract should be printed on a laser printer (Times New Roman 12 points with full justification are recommended) on this form within the indicated border or separate A4 sheet within an area of this form. Since original manuscript will be reduced to 75% in printing, a small type face is not recommended. All figures should be of good quality and the lettering should be readable after reduction.

Please send the original and an additional copy of this abstract form with registration form by May 15, 2001. Use two hard boards to protect original abstract form in the envelope.

Reference to the literature should be placed at the end of the abstract.
